

10 Blur Of A Year - Sven

I feel as dark as the night
When the night falls at 5pm

I feel as foggy as this day cold and sad, it comes along and it won't stop no end in sight

the street lights
all covered in a haze

My mood hangs in the air
Heavy, grey and dull

My mood hangs in the air

An entire blur of a day
An entire blur of a day
An entire blur of a week
An entire blur of a year

Its already been a year

And still your mask isn't covering your nose

You march along with the far right and you feel powerful

I just don't get you anymore

This is more than enough

This is too much

An entire blur of a day

An entire blur of a day

An entire blur of a week
